5. President's Report

Trustee Corgiat began with a recap of the events leading up to the $4^{\text {th }}$ of July parade. The Monday golf outing was well attended, raising a good amount toward scholarships and with appearances from 3 or 4 attendees of notoriety (mainly Westchester folks, a couple of mayors). The food was purchased by a construction company (W. E. O'Brien) and all donated money went toward scholarships.

6. Director's Report

Natalie Starosta began by stating that NRPL's been getting started with summer reading. Natalie Aguirre, the new Youth Services Manager joined the NRPL team on the $9^{\text {th }}$, Susan Locander left on the $11^{\text {th }}$. The Summer Reading Program kick-off party on the $10^{\text {th }}$ was well-attended, and while the fundraising sale of stuffed animals was off to a good start, it will be going on throughout summer.

7. Committee Reports

A. Advocacy (Johnson) (informational)

- Nothing to report. Trustee Johnson said he needs to reach out to Britney - last they spoke they had discussed setting up a time for a marketing meeting.
- Trustee Corgiat added that Chick-fil-A might be a sponsor.
B. Building & Grounds (Rouleau) (informational)
- Trustee Rouleau said the parking lot has been refinished, the lights are working, and there is neither flooding downstairs, nor has moisture been noticed.
Regarding landscaping brought up by Trustee Corgiat, however, the branch leaning on the light post and wires still needs to be cut. The planters have been well-maintained.
- Trustees Corgiat and Gordon also brought up that the library lettering needs to be shined.
C. Finance (Bonnar) (informational)
- Director Starosta filled in for Trustee Bonnar in her absence. There is less than a month left in the fiscal year & finances are in order.
D. Personnel (Gordon) (informational)
- Trustee Gordon said that the Director's review is going to come out in the near future and will be conducted same as last year's (via a google form, which assists with data compilation).
- Small changes to the shared board google drive's security will be made (increased) during the review period - and the google drive will be down for about a week while the data is being compiled.
- Following this discussion, the board determined that the project will be handled via Trustee Gordon's personal google drive.
E. Policy (Bonnar, Ottenweller) (informational)
- Trustee Ottenweller stated that this will be discussed during the committee of the whole meeting, as there are many policy changes to review ahead of the August board meeting.
F. Strategic Planning (Mathias) (informational)
- Trustee Mathias began by alluding to the upcoming motion to release the six closed meeting minutes. The purpose for releasing these, as Mathias said, is part and parcel of the yearly or biyearly releases, which are standard practice
- Trustee Corgiat brought up that she had talked to Director Starosta and Trustee Gordon about the upcoming board retreat - reiterated that everyone had selected July.
- Director Starosta went on to say that the library hired Deiters and Todd Consulting, who were previously library directors for years and have been presenters at many other local libraries. Jim Deiters will be here, while Derick Todd will be doing behind the scenes prep. Everything the board wanted more information on has been forwarded as a draft to the consulting group
- Trustee Corgiat asked whether the retreat might be moved to the fall
- Director Starosta explained that Jim Deiters is head of the advocacy committee scheduled for the retreat, and that there will be breakout sessions for goalmaking within each committee, as well as one on the Open Meetings Act
- Trustee Corgiat stated that she would like to condense chairmanships.
- Trustee Ottenweller asked the Open Meeting Act session to be taken out of the discussion.
- Trustee Gordon brought up the possibility of adding a section on trustee training, specifically without the director present - Trustee

Ottenweller asked why the director would not be present, and Trustee Corgiat said that she would like this because then trustees could speak openly as North Riverside residents, rather than as board members.

8. New Business

A. Staff wage increase - COLA (action)

- Director Starosta state that, rather than doing cost of living and merit increases, cost of living is the only staff salary increase this year, and will be implemented as a blanket statement for non-introductory period staff. This amounts to about 10K total.
- Trustee Gordon asked why there is no merit increase. Director Starosta explained that the current cost of living has increased $7 \%$ and that the upcoming $4 \%$ increase is a maximum that does not meet the current state of inflation.
- Natalie added that there are also credit card points that may be used for gift cards as way to supplements the discrepancy
- Trustee Ottenweller asked what other libraries are doing, and Director Starosta said that $90 \%$ of libraries are solely adding cost of living pay increases.

I, Greg Gordon, make a motion to approve the $4 \%$ cost of living wage increase as presented. I, Jeanne Ottenweller, second. All ayes. Motion carried.
B. Illinois Libraries Presents IGA (action)

- Director Starosta summarized the Intergovernmental Agreement, explaining that NRPL would like to partner with IL Libraries Present, which pools all participating libraries' application fees to hire big name authors to do presentations accessible to all participating libraries virtually.
- Trustee Gordon asked what kind of content would be presented, to which Director Starosta said that NRPL will not have control over content. The Director went on to state that the program was started last year as a demo and had three authors with huge turnout
- Trustee Johnson added that over the 10 months of the program, there would be a total of 12 events.

I, Ken Rouleau, make a motion to approve the Illinois Libraries Presents intergovernmental agreement as presented. I, Kyle Johnson, second. All ayes. Motion carried.

2022 LIBRARY SURVEY INTRODUCTION

The 2022 Library Survey report has been compiled using data provided by 134 participating libraries who contributed data for 6,087 employees. This survey reports data for 63 unique library positions. We wish to thank the participating libraries who took the time to provide us with data.

Participants had the opportunity to participate online or via paper questionnaire by the extended deadline of April 29, 2022. Participants were specifically instructed to submit data from the pay period closest to March 1, 2022.

2022 LIBRARY SURVEY USING THE REPORT

THE SURVEY AS A GUIDE - The survey statistics presented in this report are based on the data provided by participating libraries. The goal of this report is to provide you with valid and reliable data to make informed decisions on pay and benefits.

Surveys are a valuable tool when analyzing how your library's pay and benefit programs relate to other libraries with similar demographic characteristics. However, survey users should not use this data as absolute standards. Please exercise care when utilizing survey data. Specific results should be examined in the context of overall survey findings and the general economic situation prevailing at the time the data was gathered.

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION - All jobs are reported with hourly rates except job 01 Director. That job is reported with annual rates that have been standardized to reflect a 40-hour workweek. Breakouts categories for budget, population served and employment size are included to provide more specific comparisons to libraries that more closely match your own.

Salary data for each job are shown in a simple, easy-to-read format reporting the following statistical information. Statistics are displayed only for those positions with FIVE or more contributing libraries.

AVERAGE: The average rate weighted by the number of employees. It is the sum of all rates for all employees reported, divided by the number of rates reported.

MEDIAN: The middle value of the distribution of rates for each job. When the values or rates are arranged in order from lowest to highest, the median divides this distribution so that an equal number of rates are on either side of it. It is not affected by extremely high or extremely low values as is the mean.

PERCENTILES:

25\%-75\%: The range enclosing the middle one-half of the rates in the distribution. We designate the lowest rate in the second quarter or quartile and the highest rate in the third quartile as the boundaries of this mid-range.

10\%-90\%: The range enclosing the middle four-fifths of the rates in the distribution. It is designated by the rate at the tenth percentile and at the ninetieth percentile. At least 10 libraries are needed to show these statistics.

INSUFFICIENT DATA: Salary statistics are displayed only for those positions with FIVE or more contributing libraries. This is used as a safeguard to preserve confidentiality of salary data. Therefore, if a position or breakout category is not listed in the job summary, it is because there was not enough data received to be able to report it.

Serves as the top paid administrative and executive officer of the library. Responsible for overall administration and operation of departmental and branch activities. Reports to governing body such as board of directors or board of trustees.

Question:

My Board currently meets twice a month. Once for their Committee of the Whole and once for the Board meeting. Previously (before my time here), they met nearly 10 times a month for various separate committees, other concerns and the Board meeting. Over the past year, they have canceled several Committee of the Whole meetings for lack of discussion topics. My Board President is very concerned about this turn of events. Can you all tell me what you do? Do you have separate committee meetings through the month (or as needed), a monthly Committee of the Whole meeting or just discussion at your Board meetings? Our regular Board meetings are generally less than an hour and Committee of the Whole meetings are usually even shorter depending on the month.

Director's Listserv Responses:
(Midlothian Library) Our board meets once a month for its regular meeting, and they do not ever have Committees of the Whole. We have 7 smaller committees, some of which meet about once a year on an as-needed basis, others of which meet twice a year. As it is currently, our regular board meetings run between 60 and 90 minutes each. I cannot possibly imagine having so much business to discuss that it would be worth having a Committee of the Whole on a monthly basis.
(Prospect Heights Library) Committees or CoWs are in place to save the board time by handling the discussion, reviewing quotes, and such outside of the regular meeting where the vote takes place.

We have 3 standing committees. Budget & Finance generally meets twice a year once for the budget and again for the levy. Personnel & Policy meets 4-5 times a year to keep current on our policy review schedule and do the director's evaluation. Building & Grounds meets on an as needed basis which l'd say is about 3-4 times a year but depends on what projects we're doing.

If you (or your president) can't identify things that are being missed, it's fine to have everything done at the regular meeting. Having an uneasy feeling is natural if this is a departure of the past, but that feeling alone shouldn't force extra meetings.

Be grateful that $\sim 10$ committee meetings per month are a thing of the past! I can't imagine what those were all about and why/how they couldn't have been consolidated. But that was a previous board and this board is doing things differently and that's OK.

Board meetings and procedures fluctuate over time and trustees and directors come and go. It's a natural thing I think. For example, my board meetings used to last 2 hours, often 2.5. There was some turnover on the board and they elected a new president who made it a priority to get meetings down to 90 minutes.

We implemented a consent agenda and I made a conscious effort to talk less (I now presume they read my monthly report and limit myself to 3 highlights and asking for questions). We were at 90 minutes (generally less) in about 6 months.

COVID condensed things even more. Zoom meetings were 45 minutes or so. And when we resumed meeting in person, that trend continued. Over the past year, we've had two meetings that took less than 30 minutes from call to order to adjournment!

Now, that concerned me a bit - where we missing something? Nope, all business was getting covered. Was the board not engaged? Not really, they didn't discuss every point, but they did ask enough questions to assure me that they're reading the material and the like.

So this is our new normal. And it's allowing me this year to implement more board training. We should still be under 90 minutes, but they think a 60 minute meeting with 20 minutes of training is a good use of their time.
(Lansing Library) My Board meets once a month for the Board meeting, and only rarely meets outside of that date.
(Northlake Library) Same as others have mentioned we meet monthly (except December and July there are no meetings) and while we don't currently have committees as they prefer to just meet monthly as a whole, the previous board had committee meetings just before the regular board meetings.

(Peru Library) Peru has 11 meetings per fiscal year, skipping December most years. They have ad hoc committee meetings as needed - nomination, and secretary's review. Our meetings run 1 to 1.5 hours.

(Selby Library) My board meets once a month unless there is a need for the committees to meet. We used to have more committee meetings, then we realized that once the committee brought items to the full board, we just had to rehash it all again, so it seemed like a waste of everyone's time.
(Downers Grove Library) We meet once a month and rarely have committee meetings. When they do COWs, they are usually either training or building tours.
(East Moline Library) My Board only meets once a month, and does not have a COW setup. We do have committees who report back/make recommendations to the Board, but they are generally meeting once a quarter or less (exceptions around budget time or other big projects). Discussion occurs during our regular board meetings, which generally last about an hour.
(Algonquin Library) My Board typically meeting 11 times a year (skip November and move the meeting up in December to avoid the holidays). We have three committees - Policy typically meets in January and July; Budget & Personnel typically meets in May, June, and October; Facilities meets as needed. This has worked out well for us because then everyone has an idea of what to expect and when.

I also meet with my Board President to review the agenda about a week before every board meeting. I encourage trustees to call or email anytime with questions because it's generally easier for me to have the time to review what I need to give a more complete answer than to answer random questions on the fly. But I do what I need to do. And if the question is good for general knowledge, then I will repeat it at the board meeting for everyone's benefit. I rarely get questions between meetings though, for better or worse. It may help that I include a memo with the board packet explaining everything that is in there and why. This helps me organize my thoughts and rationale and limits the need to ask as many questions.
(Mcconathy Library - Sauk Village) We have one meeting a month. I do encourage trustees to come in throughout the month with questions or concerns and updates so it can all be rolled into our meeting
